'GET BUSY LIVING' is the philosophy behind everything the Matt Hampson Foundation aims to do; they help people get busy living again after a life altering injury. Whether by helping them get back into sport or just assisting in making adjustments to their new life Matt Hampson are there to help and support them on their chosen path. All their beneficiaries are getting busy living and they are very proud of this fact.

The £1 million Matt Hampson Foundation's rehabilitation centre for people who have suffered catastrophic injury is now complete. Matt Hampson's dream is finally a reality with the completion of work on the Foundation's Get Busy Living! Centre in Burrough on the Hill, Leicestershire.

Perform Better are honoured and proud to have been involved in this pioneering rehabilitation centre, designed for the Foundation's beneficiaries who have suffered life altering and catastrophic sporting injuries. Perform Better provided a full installation service including tailored strength and conditioning and rehabilitation equipment to the Centre.
